Vodafone doubles success for Hitchin Priory's Charity Family Fun Day

Vodafone has come to the aid of Keech Hospice Care for Children by doubling the money raised at the charity Family Fun Day recently held at Hitchin Priory.

The special Father's Day even was the brainchild Hitchin Priory's head chef Stephen Hepworth and Keech Hospice's Sandra Luff. The idea was to create a day that would appeal to Dad's and families alike, but would also generate funds to help support the leading local children's charity.

After much fun playing with Segway personal transporters, carousels and bouncy castles, all were able to enjoy a wide range of delicious refreshments, freshly prepared by Hitchin Priory's head chef, Stephen Hepworth and his catering team. Most of the activities and refreshments were donated by local businesses.

Stephen commented "We are very grateful to all our local suppliers and businesses who provided their products free of charge and donated tombola and auction prizes which all helped to swell the coffers. Their generosity meant that we made a profit of about £600 on the day and Vodafone's offer to match the money we raised was real icing on the cake. The £1200 will go a long way to provide support for local children suffering with a life-limiting condition and enjoy a better quality of life."
